From, The Inam Superintendent.

Letter no. 48 Dy 16. 12. 1913

Forwards the Inam extract relating to godi Haralur village.

8. The Dy. Commr's. letter under reply explains the facts of the case.

9 In the Kumbarpet of the Bangalore city, there is the Darga of Nawab Ibrahim Ali Khan, maternal uncle of Nawab Hyder Ali Khan. It is a Muznai institution endowed with godi Haralur village in the Bangalore Taluk measuring 630a-26g and assessed at rs 620 and odd. The godi village is a Devadaya inam intended for the support of the Darga and for "urus" and other ceremonies thereon - from col 19 of the inam extract, and from a copy of a Nirupa of Vyaya (1676) in the Vern. records, it is seen that Dewan Purniah had granted this village as inam to the Darga that the village was resumed and a money grant of 50 Pagodas had been allowed instead, and that on the representation of Mahomed Kasim Ali, grand-son of Mahomed Ibrahim Ali Khan, the money grant was discontinued and the village was restored for the up-keep of the Darga. // Benki Nawab Mahomed Jaffer Ali Khan great-grandson of Nawab Ibrahim Ali Khan was managing the Darga up to the year 1866. After his death, his widow being a Parada lady and her 2 sons being minors, her son-in-law Nasim Sahab, late Amildar of Hosadurga

X — was appointed as manager in order No. 241 Dy. 23-7-1866 (vide also Colln. 19 of the inam register) Owing to mismanagement and other irregularities, this man was removed, And Benki Nawab's elder son, Mahmed Ibrahim Ali Khan was appointed as manager. The (vide order Dy 14-11-1881 the Dy. Commr. Mr. L Ricketts) — latter was also ousted from office as he found no better than his predecessor, and his younger brother Nawab Mahmed Kasim Ali Khan And another son-in-law of Benki Nawab were appointed as

V — joint managers in 1887 on probation for 6 months, by the Dy. Commissioner Major Masantire. In Dec. 1888, the Amildar having reported that their

V — work was satisfactory, the records were filed without further orders. The other son-in-law of Benki Nawab subsequently died, and the sole management came to Nawab Mahmed Kasim Ali Khan - the present manager

11- The Complaints against this man are:-
(1) that he has transferred the patta of some Bataji lands in the Jodi village to his sister's name and has let out these lands on long leases after obtaining a sum of Rs 1500 as advance which has been mis-appropriated;
(2) that services are not being conducted, that no accounts of income and expr are maintained, and that the insttn is badly in need of repairs.
(3) that Makan servants are not being paid, and the services of the village Sanbog and Patel have been dispensed with.

The Taluka Huildar and the Assistant Commissioner Mr Hasham Ali after a personal inspection of the spot, give a very unsatisfactory account of the Makan affairs as detailed in the Dy. Comm's letter. The Dy Comm agreeing with them, proposes:-
(1) that the insttn and its endowment may be taken under Govt management,
(2) that some leading Mahomedan gentlemen including the present Manager may be appointed as Nazarine-Owkafs.
(3) that a scale of expenditure may be fixed for expenses in the Dargah, and

(4) that Survey and Settlement may be introduced into the village.

13 The Amildar says that it was not possible to secure the presence of the Manager and obtain his explanation on the general points, as he resides in Mysore.

14 Nawab Khasim Ali Khan has petitioned Government stating that the Managership of the Darga is hereditary in his family, that the institution is very badly in need of repairs and that if an estimate is got prepared by Govt., he will pay one-half of the estimated cost of repair from his pocket.

Submd. for orders

PM (115) 27.4.1914.

From Col 8 of the Inam Register it is clear that the Inam was granted for the support of the Darga and for the performance of "Urus" and other ceremonies therein. From the Deputy Coll's report and the complaint-petn it is evident that the conditions of the grant are not acted up to

16. Forward the petn with present memo and request the Bd concd to report on the following points.

(1) The probable net income from the village available now for being spent upon the temple

(2) The state of expenditure that is incurred by the Sanctioned net upkeep income

(3) A rough estimate of the urgent repairs that are now necessary, leaving the question of renovation when funds are available at the end of the existing institution may be appointed as Dharmadarsis with Mr Abbas Khan as Asst Convenor.

2. After the appointment of the Dharmadarsis, the D.C. states that they will be called upon to investigate into the affairs of the Darga and suggest improvements & a scale of expenditure. The D.C promises to report later on in the matter of repairs needed to the institution.

3. At the end of para 3 of the letter, the D.C. states that if the village is taken under Govt. management and survey settlement introduced into it, the annual income may be not less than Rs 1000. In para 13 of col: 20 of the Inam Register, copy of which is in the file, it is stated that this village is not subject to revision under Govt Pro: No. 14223-5/P.F. 100-93 dt 17.2.1894 vide Survey Supdt's yadi no. 237-83-7-96.
